

Summit Missions International (SMI) – Privacy Policy

SMI is committed to your privacy.

In order to protect your privacy, the following information which explains our online practices has been provided. It includes choices you may wish to make concerning the way your information is collected and used.

SMI collects the following information.

Name

Address

E-mail address

This information is collected on the SMI website. On some of the website pages, you can make monetary donations, submit inquiries about volunteer and short-term mission opportunities, or submit prayer requests and other comments. Donors who give donations through the PayPal program will also be sent a personalized receipt from our headquarters.

How does SMI use your information?

Your information is only used in conjunction with processing a donation or in response to your request for information. This information is never shared with any other parties except to the extent necessary to complete the donation process. In the event a donation is made on behalf of another person (memorial gift, recognition gift, etc.) SMI will send that person a letter informing them of the gift that was made on their behalf. Again, no information is ever shared with outside parties.

Email addresses are used to return inquiries made by email. The email addresses provided are not used for any other purposes and never shared with outside parties. In the event you wish to receive ministry publications or other material via email, SMI will include your name on its electronic mailing list. Again, this information is never shared with any other party.

Any personal information that would lead to the identity of the supplier is never used by SMI. An exception to this is when specific permission is granted to SMI.

SMI is committed to securing your data.

In order to secure any information gathered online, SMI is committed to maintaining data accuracy, thwarting unauthorized access and ensuring that all information is used in a correct manner. SMI uses a variety of methods to protect your data including electronic security, limiting of physical access to only properly authorized staff members, etc.

SMI and social media

SMI utilizes social media to inform others regarding meetings, special events and to publish articles of interest relating to the mission. Individual privacy settings as they relate to social media are not the responsibility of SMI.

SMI and juvenile privacy

SMI never collects information on anyone known to be under the age of 18. Our website is specifically designed and targeted for adults age 18 and older.

SMI and PayPal

SMI has the ability to receive monetary donations through a link provided by the PayPal Corporation. The terms, conditions, and policies of PayPal are governed expressly by PayPal and are not the responsibility of SMI. Any information regarding the PayPal privacy policy can be found on their website at www.paypal.com.
